

The Significance of Hope Calvary Nurse Spotlighted in the Film, Defining Hope

The groundbreaking documentary Defining Hope debuted across the U.S. in November 2017. Carolyn Jones, Director and Executive Producer, wanted to use this film to tell a story about people weighing what matters at the most fragile junctures in life, and the nurses who guide them. It follows patients with life-threatening illnesses as they make choices about how they want to live, how much curative treatment they can tolerate, what they hope for and how that hope evolves when life is threatened. It reminds us that we have choices in how we die and the importance of making advance directive plans well ahead of time.

The film prominently features Diane Ryan, RN, a nurse who works at Calvary's 200-bed Bronx campus. She shares candid insights about caring for her patients and their families, her work as a hospice nurse, and how she deals with her own serious health challenges.

Letter from The Calvary Fund Executive Vice President

Dear Friends,

An elderly woman leaned heavily on the arm of a man I took to be her son; they were trailed by several young people in their late teens and twenties. They're here to see someone they love, I thought...maybe her husband, his father, their grandpa. I could see the anguish on their faces.

Every day I am reminded how fortunate we are to have so many friends and supporters of our mission. I know of no place like Calvary anywhere that serves patients and their families at such a fragile time in their lives.

Standing in the lobby on any given day I have observed family members of all ethnicities and all ages entering our facilities. Some are accompanying their loved ones arriving via medical transport on stretchers – where our amazing staff makes sure they are settled in their rooms receiving *CalvaryCare*SM in 15 minutes or less – truly extraordinary.

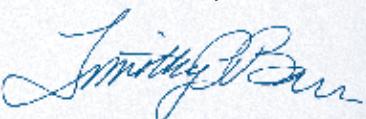

You see, at Calvary, helping patients and families cope with these very stressful times is what we do. Other facilities may deal with patients at the end of life, but do they really understand all of the nuances and crises that may arise and the difficult dynamics in play. I would suggest they do not. But at Calvary, this is our sacred mission, our staff's passion – to soothe and ease everybody's pain. Nobody should suffer at the end of life – EVER! Not patients nor their families – and why should they when there is a place like Calvary that has been down this road with many families and patients for over 100 years.

While we know there is much anguish and heartache taking place floor to floor, room to room – we work to diminish that pain and suffering.

How fortunate we are to live in proximity to a place like Calvary where we have access to this unique care across the metro NY area and in our homes. Truly, there is a CalvaryCare option for everybody whether as an in-patient or at home.

And for all that you do to support the provision of CalvaryCare to our patients and families, I thank you. I thank you for all that you've done, all that you continue to do and all that I know you will do within your own ability to support Calvary. Without you and your generosity, it's an unfathomable fact, that Calvary couldn't exist.

With Gratitude,

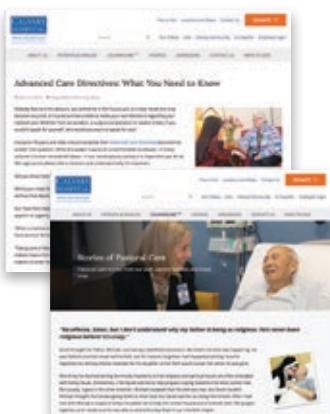

Timothy P. Barr
Executive Vice President

Each month we will publish two new articles. Future topics will include Self-Care for the Health Care Professional, Music Therapy, Spiritual Care and Halachic End-of-life Care.

Celebrating Calvary Supporters at the New York Botanical Garden

Calvary hosted our Annual Spring Donor Reception at The New York Botanical Garden on May 1st. Nearly 280 people gathered at the picturesque site to hear the latest news from the Hospital as well as enjoy the Conservatory, a buffet dinner and an all-women classical music trio. Two family members, Lynn Milito and James R. Waters, shared their experience with CalvaryCareSM for their father and aunt, respectively.

"When terminal illness threatened to douse my father's spirit, we knew Calvary was the only place that would allow him to continue the quality of life he deserved. He had visitors 24/7 from our family and his firefighter 'brothers'. Calvary gave him the place to celebrate all that he loved – with dignity, faith, and plenty of laughter. Dad would often say 'being at Calvary is like dying and going to heaven.' How prophetic." — Lynn Milito

Restoring Life to a Sacred Torah Scroll

In May, nearly two years after we finished restoring a 135-year-old Torah scroll (No. 515) on permanent loan to Calvary from the Memorial Scrolls Trust (MST) in London, we dedicated the new mantle cover for it. This scroll is one of 1,564 Torah scrolls salvaged from World War II. It is one of only 20 in the greater New York area today and among the very few MST scrolls that have gone to non-Jewish recipients. Calvary's restoration project was made possible due to early significant support from the Charles R. and Winifred R. Weber Foundation.

Educating the Jewish and mainstream communities about halachic end-of-life care continues to be an important outreach program at Calvary.

- Calvary was a proud supporter of the Westchester Jewish Council's 42nd Annual Gala in February.
- We sponsored the 29th Annual Bikur Cholim Conference (Visiting the Sick) in April at UJA Federation of New York for nearly 200 attendees. Calvary representatives Rabbi Rachmiel Rothberger, BCC and Saraa Adelson, RN, led two comprehensive workshops on "Visiting with Someone at the End of Life."
- Rabbi Rachmiel Rothberger was a speaker at Molloy College's 10th Annual Palliative Care Conference.

To learn how you can support our care of Jewish patients and families, please contact Leslie Bernstein at (718) 518-2018 or lbernstein@calvaryhospital.org.

Hearts & Hands Mission for Calvary Patients

Congregants and friends of Grace Episcopal Church on City Island, worked together over the past year on the Hearts & Hands Mission. Their goal was to knit and crochet items specifically for patients at Calvary's Bronx campus. A group of five women, especially Margaret Lannie, lovingly crocheted 30 afghan blankets and knit hats.

After the blankets and hats were blessed by Father John Covington, Barbara Edwards Dennis (above right) dropped off the items to Eddie Gorman (above left), who is head of Calvary's Therapeutic Recreation Department. The blankets and hats will be among the prizes offered at weekly bingo games for patients.

Calvary Receives Facility Dog from Canine Companions for Independence

Calvary Hospital has just added its newest "employee" to its Bronx campus, Banjo, a facility assistance dog. Bred and trained at Canine Companions for Independence, Banjo is a 3-year-old Labrador/Golden Retriever cross.

As an expertly trained facility dog, Banjo partners with a human facilitator working in a health care, visitation or education setting. Facility dogs are different from typical family pets; they receive extensive and specialized training and are partnered with professional facilitators to primarily provide structured, practical "task oriented" interactions to groups of children and adults with disabilities in health care, education, and other professional settings.

Banjo was matched with his Calvary facilitator, Shannon McCourt, LCSW, during an intensive two-week training program in Long Island, New York. Shannon is responsible for handling and caring for Banjo. In fact, he lives with her.

Banjo's primary role at Calvary is to help people decrease their stress. In the few weeks since Banjo joined the Hospital, he and Shannon have been enthusiastically received by everyone at the 200-bed Bronx campus, the largest of Calvary's four inpatient locations.

Canine Companions for Independence provides expertly trained assistance dogs to children, adults and veterans with disabilities. Established in 1975 in California, Canine Companions is the largest non-profit provider of assistance dogs in the United States. It is recognized worldwide for the excellence of its dogs, and the quality and longevity of the matches it makes between people and dogs. There is no charge for the dog, its training and ongoing follow-up services.

For more information, visit www.cci.org or call 1-800-572-BARK.

Calvary Renovates Beauty Salon Thanks to Generous Bequest

Nicholas (Nick) Giannone, a retired butcher, started a 12-year stint as a Calvary volunteer in 1987. By the time he finished, he had clocked in an incredible 3,023 hours of service! At the Bronx campus, Nick gave haircuts to patients, assisted with nutrition carts and helped out at weekday Therapeutic Recreation events.

After he passed away, Nick left Calvary a generous bequest. This gift was used to renovate the beauty salon located at the Bronx campus. In addition to going to the salon for hair wash, cut, styling and manicures, patients can also get these by the bedside at the Bronx and Brooklyn campuses. Additionally, manicures are also available for family members at the Bronx campus – upon request. All of Calvary's salon services are offered at no charge.

New York Chapter Knights of Columbus

For the past 38 years, much of that time under the skilled leadership of Al Corcillo and Bob Bieder, the New York Chapter Knights of Columbus has supported our mission by making Calvary the main beneficiary of their year-round fundraising efforts. To date, the NY Chapter has raised more than $1,135,000 million for our program of care.

Catholic Institute of the Food Industry

For more than 24 years, the Catholic Institute of the Food Industry (CIFI) has supported Calvary's family-centric approach to patient care and the establishment of the Family Care Center at the Bronx campus. The more than $1.2 million CIFI has raised has benefitted thousands of family members who find comfort and respite at the Family Care Center. The CIFI was formed in 1946 to unite in fellowship all Catholics, at all levels, who are employed in the food industry.

Dennis Berberich, Jr., DMB Consulting, is the new President of CIFI. Dennis is a second generation supporter of the Calvary mission. His father, Dennis Berberich, Sr., was the former Chairman of the Calvary Fund. After his father passed away at Calvary, the Berberich family started an annual scholarship to help Calvary Care Technicians continue their professional development.

Dennis Berberich, Jr. and Elizabeth Kougasian, Calvary Hospital's Director of Major & Planned Gifts at the CIFI event.

Jose E. Maccera, MD

Dr. Jose E. Maccera's beloved mother, Violeta Zaput Sangster, passed away at age 73 in 2000 in their home country of Peru. Dr. Maccera wanted a way to remember her in the U.S. and to support Calvary's mission of caring for people at the end of life. He found the perfect solution: purchasing a gold leaf in her memory on the Tree of Life located at Calvary's Bronx campus.

Dr. Maccera is a member of the Calvary Medical Department and a practicing physician for more than 20 years.

Karen Wilkow, LCSW, ACHP-SW

Karen Wilkow's connection to Calvary is both personal and professional. Her mother, Ilse Homer, was an inpatient at our Bronx campus in 2011 and her mother-in-law, Marcia Wilkow, received end-of-life care from Calvary@Home in 2010 in her Brooklyn home. A social worker for nearly 20 years, Karen worked with Calvary Hospice patients before becoming the Social Worker (Family Care Practitioner) at Calvary's Brooklyn campus five years ago. She has supported the Calvary mission for years.

Circle of Hope Cancer Foundation

For more than two decades, the Circle of Hope Cancer Foundation (COHCF) has supported Calvary's program of care in Brooklyn. This includes inpatient care at our 25-bed Brooklyn Campus, home care and hospice where people reside, and free bereavement support groups for adults, children and teenagers who meet weekly in downtown Brooklyn. (A Calvary connection is not required to participate in any part of the Hospital's bereavement support program.) We are the principal beneficiary of COHCF's year-round fundraising efforts. To date, COHCF has raised $115,000 for Calvary.

Supporting the Calvary Mission

Because of the generous and ongoing support of many wonderful donors, Calvary continues to deliver outstanding care to our beloved patients. We are also able to share our expertise with thousands of doctors, nurses and other healthcare professionals from around the world who come to learn Calvary's unique model of palliative care.

There are many ways to support the Calvary mission. Here are a few ways you can provide comfort, care and compassion to over 6,000 patients and families:

- Tree of Life

A gift to Calvary's Tree of Life ensures that a loved one's name will exist in perpetuity with the lifetime of the Hospital. For more information, please contact Sandrina Fernandez, Development Associate, at 718-518-2039 or via email at sfernandez@calvaryhospital.org.

- The Storrs Society

Storrs Society members are passionate about their continuous commitment and generosity to the Calvary Fund. Become a member by making annual gifts of $1,000 or more. For more information, please contact Tricia Reyes, Director of Annual Giving at 718-518-2076, or via email at treyes@calvaryhospital.org

- The Society of 1899

Calvary Hospital was founded in 1899 by dedicated volunteers with the supporting gifts and bequests dating back to the turn of the century. For more information on becoming a member or other planned giving opportunities, please contact Elizabeth Edds Kougasian, Esq., Director of Major and Planned Gifts at 718-518-2080 or via email at ekougasian@calvaryhospital.org.

- Foundation and Corporate Giving

Calvary depends on the support of dedicated companies and foundations that understand the importance of our work and mission. Despite limitations on insurance coverage and reimbursement, Calvary is a vital, growing and indispensable part of the healthcare landscape. For more information, please contact Leslie Bernstein, Director of Foundation and Corporate Relations at 718-518-2078 or via email at lbernstein@calvaryhospital.org.

- Annual Awards Gala

Calvary will host its 35th Annual Awards Gala on Thursday, November 8, 2018 at The Pierre Hotel. Since 1983, this annual event has raised millions of dollars to support our many programs and services that positively impact our patients, families and the community. For more information, please contact John Dougherty, Events Manager at 718-518-2285 or via email at jdougherty@calvaryhospital.org.

To learn more about ways to support Calvary Hospital, please visit: www.calvaryhospital.org and click on Ways to Give or contact us at 718-518-2077.
