

Calvary Bereavement Course For Health Care Professionals

Calvary Hospital in the Bronx will offer its annual continuing education course for health care professionals about issues related to bereavement and grief at sites in Manhattan and Brooklyn.

The 11-week course will be held on Tuesday evenings, beginning March 3, at Terence Cardinal Cooke Health Care Center, 1249 Fifth Ave. (ninth floor) in Manhattan. The bereavement support program classes will also be offered on Wednesday evenings, beginning March 4, at St. Joseph High School, 80 Willoughby St., Brooklyn. At each location, the class will run from 6 to 8:30 p.m.
